

Chaplain Aide

- The Chaplain Aide assists the troop chaplain (usually an adult from the troop committee or the chartered organization) in serving the religious needs of the troop. He ensures that religious holidays are considered during the troop's program planning process and promotes the BSA's religious emblems program.
- The Chaplain Aide works with the Troop Chaplain to meet the religious needs of Scouts in the troop. He also works to promote the religious emblems program.
- The Chaplain Aide is appointed by the Senior Patrol Leader.

As Chaplain Aide, I will promote the concept of Reverence in the Troop:

- Attend every Troop campout or arrange a replacement beforehand
- Lead a religious service at every campout which I attend that includes Sunday morning
- Prepare a grace and lead the Troop before every meal
- Maintain the Chaplain's area of the web site with graces, prayers, and resources
- Wear my uniform correctly, set a good example, practice the Scout Oath and Law
- Fulfill the requirements of this position for 6 months
